

Growth of Integrated Behavioral Health

At Over 50 Sites

Community Health Centers treat a wide array of behavioral issues from obesity and smoking to depression, to substance use disorders, and serious mental illness.

Psychiatrists: Visits:

| 2008 | 2019 |
|--------|--------|
| 6.7 | 21.4 |
| 12,099 | 41,162 |

| 2008 | 2019 |
|--------|--------|
| 6.7 | 21.4 |
| 12,099 | 41,162 |

↑ 219%
240%

Therapist: Visits:

| 2008 | 2019 |
|--------|---------|
| 29.7 | 121.7 |
| 28,267 | 154,586 |

| 2008 | 2019 |
|--------|---------|
| 29.7 | 121.7 |
| 28,267 | 154,586 |

↑ 310%
447%

Source: 2008/2018 UDS (Only includes health centers that report to UDS)

Grant Funded Services

Behavioral Health and Primary Care Integration Project

Evidence-Based Behavioral Health Care to 10,292

Individuals since 2007 using a Collaborative Care Model

Cross-System Collaboration Pilots

SoCal Optimization of SBIRT (SOS Project) funded by SAMHSA

Screened over 34,000*+

Individuals for alcohol and other drugs since November 2018

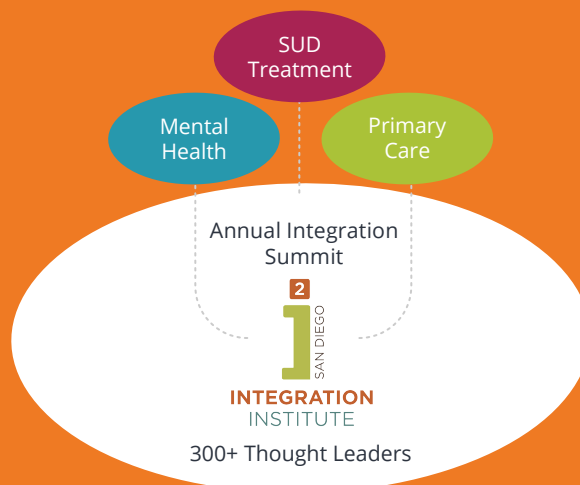

*Reflects number of patients served in the specific programs through May 20, 2021, not all patients served by member health centers.

Training and Technical Assistance

2 MAT X-Waiver Trainings

44 Providers Trained

Numerous presentations on the "What, Why, and How" of Integrated Behavioral Healthcare at conferences and grad schools nationwide.